Vol. 24 BARIUM SPRINGS, N. C., JANUARY 1947 No. 3

A Revival of the Student Conference

A number of years ago an idea was suggested by the Children's Home of Winston-Salem - it was to have meetings twice a year of selected students from several of the larger institutions. Eventually five institutions participated. The Children's Home, The Mills Home, The Lexington Junior Order, The Hughes Memorial School of Danville, Va., and Barium Springs. The war came along and broke into this conference as it did so many other gatherings and now all of the students who ever participated in this conference have graduated and moved out.

The Beta Club at Barium is attempting to revive this conference and has issued invitations to the Orphanages that participated before and to the Raleigh Methodist Orphanage and the Oxford Masonic Orphanage, too. Their invitation is to meet at Barium the latter part of March - March 27th to 29th to be exact, and it is hoped that this will again become a going concern to carry on the good work started by the original conference. If these other institutions accept the invitation more detailed description of the program and plans will be in the next issue of The Messenger.

Alumni News

We would like to take this opportunity to wish for each of you a very Happy New Year and to tell you that we appreciated the Christmas greetings very much. We wish that we could acknowlege each one.

Elizabeth Langly is now Mrs. M. D. O. Parker, 311 Jones St. Raleigh, N. C.

Charles Starling, a student at the University of North Carolina, was a visitor at Barium during the holidays.

We were happy to have many of our boys home for the holidays, Rufus Long, Paul Horne, Ernest Stricklin, Amos Hardy, students at Davidson College; George and Ray Lewis, David Burney, University of North Carolina.

Beulah and Bennett Baldwin of Whiteville were visitors at Barium at Christmas.

We had a Christmas card from Mr. & Mrs. Henry Alessandrini, but no address and no particulars.

Elaine Faircloth is married but we have no other information.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ziegler on December 16th a daughter, Theresa Mell. They are living in Charlotte and we would like to have their address.

Jack, Tom, and Billy McCall spent the holidays in Charlotte with Marion. Billy is back at Davidson, and Tom at the University of Iowa. Jack is planning to enter Catawba in February.

Lugene and David Spencer and little Jean spent the first part of their Christmas holidays in Spindale with Joe and Evelyn White and the last part at Barium. Joe White is Director of City and Industrial Recreation in Spindale.

Leila Johnston, Director of Religious Education at South Highland Presbyterian Church, Birming-

January Doings

You have been in the movies when the picture changed from something like "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" to a news-reel, and the change is so abrupt that it takes you a moment or two to get adjusted to it. Well, that is something like the change at Barium right after the Christmas holidays. We have such a big time with our presents and our parties and our picture shows during the holidays, and then all of a sudden school starts again and we find ourselves in the midst of not only school activities but the annual health clinic, starting to make out the Duke Endowment Report, and getting started in a new athletic season.

Well, we have had all three of those things. First, a little bit about the Duke Report. We find that we have had 1.4 children less daily population than a year ago. The average age of the children is about a year younger than a year ago. We have not yet worked out the per capita cost to see how much it cost to keep well, how much it cost to keep appetites satisfied, and to keep clothed. All of those things will be interesting to check on after the final report is made.

In the health clinic the first thing on the docket is to weigh and measure, and we find only one boy in the whole place who did not make a satisfactory gain during the past year. In the tubercular test there were five reactors among the new children but none with even incipient tuberculosis. The general examination showed a good many enlarged and diseased tonsils, and we have already had our first tonsil party - three little girls went to the doctor on January 16th, came back to Barium on the 17th, minus their tonsils and managed to smile, a little bit weakly it is true, but able to enjoy a large helping of ice cream. These little girls to start off the tonsil activity of the season were Shelby McEwen, Carol Harwell, and Nancy Yandle. Another party is scheduled for January 21st.

In athletic activities: at this writing our teams have played four conference games, our girls winning from North Wilkesboro, Monroe, and Thomasville and losing to Children's Home. Our boys winning from North Wilkesboro and Monroe and losing to Thomasville and Children's Home. The midget teams are beginning to pratice and will open their season against Oxford School in Catawba County on January 29th. Arrangements are already being made for our two big tournaments. The Mid-Piedmont will start on February 19th running through the 24th. The Junior Tournament will start March 18th, and run through March 24th. Trophies are already on hand for these two tournaments and inquiries are already being made. Don't we wish we had that new gymnasium to stage this year's tournaments in! We have a good basketball court but not nearly enough room for the spectators.

Boy Scout activities are progressing even though the weather has been bad almost continuously since the first of the year.

Pastor's Paragraph

By Rev. F. B. Benton

"I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY GHOST"

This month our discussion of the Apostles' Creed brings our attention to one of our closest, though least known, friends and helpers. As Christians we say that we believe in a God of one Being and three Persons. The First Person is familiar to us as our Father in heaven. So is the Second Person, for He is Jesus our Savior. But to most of us the Third Person, the Holy Ghost, is a mysterious character about whom we know very little.

The word "ghost" recalls to our minds the spine-tingling stories we heard as children. Then our fears were quieted with the knowledge that "there is no such thing as a ghost", and association of ideas brings this teaching into our subconscious minds when the Holy Ghost is mentioned. Though we may learn that the "ghost" of childhood memory and the Holy Ghost have no relation, it is hard for us to free our selves from the sense of unreality about Him.

It would be well if we could use the more modern form, Holy Spirit, exclusively. We learn early that "God is a spirit", and we are accustomed to recognize the reality of a spiritual Being. Thus we are prepared for acquaintance and fellowship with the Third Person of the Godhead.

Scripture teaches that the Holy Spirit is like in being to God the Father and God the Son, and equal to them in power and glory. He is always mentioned by names indicating a real, living personality. The adjective "holy" describes His nature, which is that of God. He is called "the Spirit of Truth", indicating that His work is to enlighten the hearts of men with the truth of God. And He is called Comforter or Counsellor (the word really means "one called along side to help"), for He is the Helper whom God has sent into the world to be with men always.

In answering the question as to exactly what the Holy Spirit does for us, let us return to an illustration used last month. We likened the Father to a Great Architect,

Christmas Doings

We wish that every person who has mailed a post-card, sent a present, or done anything else to make Christmas at Barium happier, to read this.

Every year we start out with the best resolutions in the world - we are going to make a note of every post-card sent to us individually or to the Orphanage and acknowledge them, but before Christmas arrived we are hoplessly snowed under and it is out of the question to acknowledge or to even list those wonderful messages of good-will.

We wish it were possible to acknowledge by special letter every individual gift that is sent to the children at Barium, but that becomes an impossible task. To acknowledge these by post-card becomes a big job. We feel badly about this because it is so easy for a person to think that we take their gifts lightly and that we do not appreciate the many kind things done for us here, individually and as a family.

This article is an inadequate expression of our thanks for the many kindnesses done for us this year. It seems to have risen to a larger volume than ever before. Our children were better taken care of and we want everyone who had any part in making this possible to know that we thank them and appreciate highly what they have done for us.

Christmas is such a busy time. Before we have gotten our family together again after the Christmas holidays other things are crashing in on us. There is the annual health examination, which becomes more and more important every year it seems; then there are reports to make out; the Executive Committee of the Board wants to know how our finances stand; the Duke Endowment Report is due to be made out; the basketball season starts off; and there are nearly always some new worker starting in at the first of the year. All of this makes January a most hectic month.

We wish we could spend it in just saying Thank You for the many kindnesses that make our life here so worth living.

Doings of A Dozen at Annie Louise Cottage

A most enjoyable party was given on Friday night, January 17 by the matron to the dozen little girls who have recited perfectly, the Child's Catechism. Those participating in the social activities of the evening were as follows:

Games were played and contests engaged in by all. A delightful social hour followed. Mrs. Gentry, assisted by Miss Blakney and Mrs. Craig served delicious refreshments consisting of a fruit salad plate with sandwiches, crackers and cocoa followed by ice cream and pound cake.

This was a nice reward for the efforts of these little girls who deserve much commendation for this first mile post in memory work in our Sunday School. We all wish for them much success in their journey forward and hope the next mile post will be reached soon.

—Written by a Friend and Admirer of these little workers.

NEWS FROM ANNIE LOUISE COTTAGE

We are just beginning to get settled down since Santa has come and gone and we want to tell you all about his visit.

Christmas Eve night we found it almost impossible to go to sleep but when we did we dreamed only of Santa's visit. He played a trick on us this year. He usually leaves our toys under our beds, but this year we awoke and there was not a play thing in sight. We hurried down stairs and still no toys and after we were dressed and ready for breakfast our toys were found in another room. It was a good surprise but next year we will all go to sleep.

We want to thank all our good friends for telling Santa what we planning and designing the house of our salvation. The Son we compared to a contractor or builder who executed the plans of the Father and performed the actual work of salvation. One thing yet remains to be done before we can enjoy what has been prepared for us. There must be a mover to move us into our new home. This is the work of the Holy Spirit in the plan of salvation. He works in the heart of the individual, applying the saving grace and uniting each of us to Christ. He completes the work of Christ by applying it to men. It was with this work in mind that Christ taught, "It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Counsellor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send Him to you."

The Holy Spirit has remained continually in the world. We speak of God's being here and of having the presence of Christ with us. In reality what we have is the presence of the Holy Spirit, for the Father and the Son are present with us today only through Him. He works in us to convince us of sin and of our need of a Savior. Then He helps us to accept Christ, for we have no power in ourselves to turn to Him.

But even here the work of the Spirit does not end. Jesus told His disciples just before the ascension, "You shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you," and that Spirit-given power was exhibited at Pentecost. It is still found among believers, though less dramatically, today. It enables men to overcome sin and live righteously, to witness effectively for Christ, and to advance the Kingdom of God.

The Holy Spirit is the Christian's daily companion and guide. He walks the path of our life with us and points us heavenward. He gives us strength in time of trial. And it is through His voice that we hear the call to Christian service.

Can we say then that we do not know Him? Perhaps we have always called Him by some other name, but we have long loved Him and depended upon Him. Let us thank our loving Father in heaven for sending Him to us, and let us think of all He means to us when we say, "I believe in the Holy Ghost."

The girls, that we told you about last month, that had recited the Child's Catechism received their Bibles yesterday and we were so proud of them.

We want to thank you all again for telling Santa what we wanted and if you are ever up this way please drop by to see us and our bears and dolls which we love dearly.

CORRECTION: - We wish to make a correction in regard to the report in the Oct. Messenger which gave no credit to Fairfield Church, Orange Presbytery as giving a Thanksgiving Offering.

On April 6, 1946 we received through Presbytery's Treasurer $17.60 as a contribution from Fairfield. We took that to be a regular contribution. We now know it should have been Thanksgiving. We regret the error.
